

Amy Sklar

How can this be a good idea? Burning more garbage and putting all of the carcinogens in the air? There is a public school a couple of miles away. Have you thought of the health impact of these children over time? Children should be able to play outside at school and even learn in outdoor classrooms without having to worry about this.