

Kathy Ulmer

While I would love to have weekly recycle pick up, I think what is holding us and others back is the fact that what we are recycling is ending up in landfills. Either we aren't doing it right or the material isn't being recycled into other products.

Continue to make it easy to compost/recycle...and make sure that our efforts are not being wasted because the system can't handle it.