

Janet Court

I support the strongest possible zero waste policy. My grandparents had almost no waste we need to return to lifestyles with much less stuff. Up through 1960 we returned bottles to the store, we got along without plastic packaging. It is possible to live a simpler life and if we don't we have chosen not to live.