

Chris Nordstrom

Wild rice is a canary in the coal mine. We cannot allow industries to degrade our pristine lands for minimal public good. Minnesota needs clean water forever and cannot allow ticking time bombs to strewn across the landscape to be inherited by our children.