

Karen Heegaard

We are seeing everywhere what happens if we do not care for our water, air, land and vegetation. It is our duty, obligation and great responsibility to do so. It is also a legal obligation to protect the conditions that allow wild rice to grow. Beyond that we have a deep responsibility to our relatives who have a spiritual and dietary dependance on wild rice. No more sulfate pollution.