

Beth Carpenter

Growing up next to the St Louis River, less than a mile from USS Steel plant, the water was toxic. It is still polluted 45 years after the plant closed. Why risk the world's most precious commodity? Water! Water equals life. Peace