

Sally Downing

The MPCA has for 50 years not enforced the 1973 federally approved wild rice sulfate standards. Now it is proposing that 2 taconite companies be allowed to increase sulfate pollution. This sounds foolish and dangerous. Please think long about damage that can't be undone. Thank you.