

Eric Ristau

We cannot relax the sulfate standards for discharges into Minnesota waters but should rather be stiffening and enforcing them to protect our wild rice, fish & natural resources. It's our duty to protect these incredible treasures.