

Eileen Levin

we cant allow pollution degradation of our low sulfate wild rice waters. Sulfate pollution increases toxic mercury contamination resulting in dead fish and can damage the health of people who eat them. The health of our waters, fish and humans must be the priority.