

Sheila Packa

Wild rice (manoomin) is sacred to the Anishinaabe and an ecological indicator for water quality. We must ensure the MPCA does not allow mines and other industries to discharge uncontrolled pollution for another half a century.