

Mark Good

Instead of conspiring with mining conglomerates and their shills to permit sulfide mining projects, it is incumbent upon the MPCA to enforce sulfide standards they have refused to observe for 50 years, specifically in the case of MinnTac. MPCA has the constitutional responsibility to CONTROL pollution, not to encourage and enable and rubber stamp it.