

Michael Murray

If implemented, these standards would allow more pollution to degrade the quality and quantity of wild rice for the benefit of industry. Please do your job and enforce the already established standard instead of proposing actions that would undermine it.