

Donna Karnuth

We are losing plants and animals at an alarming rate. Once gone, they are gone. They need a place to live, breathe and eat that is safe. We all want safety and they, the plants and animals, have no voice.

Please do NOT loosen any standards. Being more strict is best for all of us, plants, animals and humans.