

Kathryn Mosher

Standards are made for a reason and agencies are assigned to enforce these standards. Please follow the guidelines you are assigned to enforce and protect.

Wild rice (manoomin) is sacred to the Anishinaabe and an ecological indicator for water quality. We must ensure the MPCA does not allow mines and other industries to discharge uncontrolled pollution for another half a century