

Steven Csorgo

No intentional contamination/pollution of any Minnesota waters should be allowed. Water is Minnesota's number one resource...clean water, which is necessary for the survival of all species on our planet. Clean water is scarce across the world. Does it make sense to contaminate a natural resource? No. No permits to contaminate Minnesota waters!