

Stephanie Johnson

Wild rice is a tradition and instrumental in the Anishinaabe life style and it also will disclose the healthy status of the water itself. Please MPCA protect our water quality from copper/sulfate mining or any other type of mining that might pollute our water or affect the water quality. Thank you for your commitment in protecting water and the environment.