

Pat Becchetti

I am sharing only part of the information that was supplied by the Water Legacy because I assume that many copies of their "talking points" will be sent to you. I just want to express my strongly held conviction that Minnesota needs to protect our water carefully and not cater to businesses who are making money on natural resources that belong to ALL of us, including the animals and plants that require clean water to survive.