

City of Montgomery, MN

My Sulfate levels are between 75- under 200mg/l. Are there any plant we can put in the stream to reduce the sulfate before it gets to the wild rice? That is my best and most cost effective option at this time. Way cheaper than other options at this time. What do you think?