

Noreen Hautala

MN Pollution Control Agency:

*Please, act in accordance with your agency name and control the sulfate and mercury levels in Minnesota WATERS through effective regulations!

*Add Dark Lake to the impaired WATERS list.

*Fund, generate,

implement, complete and publicly publish the results of accurate studies on the optimal "acceptable" levels of sulfates in the Minnesota WATERS in order for Manoomin, "wild rice", to THRIVE.