

Pat Becchetti

WAY too many impaired waters! We must do more to improve them and and more to avoid more harm to any of our precious waters! I want future generations to have pure water and the plants and wildlife that go with pure water. Minnesota is blessed with a lot of water, which will be important to our future as water becomes more scarce. We must protect this resource for people, animals and plants, not for the greedy to profit from.