

Andrew Kastenber

I would please urge you to invest in run off treatment, for example an incentive program for rain barrels, rain gardens, and public investment water catchment programs on boulevards. We must change laws for new construction to include the features please.