

Elene Loecher

There must be a way to better care for our precious water sources. I beg you to find solutions and hold polluters accountable. The Rights of Nature movement will have some pointers. Please speak out for the water and give it a strong voice! It is crucial to the survival of all beings.