

Cassandra Stowe

Please do something about the unusable water in Minnesota. I live in Wisconsin but I still care and will be moving to Minnesota next year to make my forever home. My heart hurts when I see the damage the pollution has caused and it stresses me out, we need water! We barely have much freshwater compared to salt water on the planet already and we cannot be poisoning the little we have. Please.