

Sara Logan

Please put a plan in place and implement it immediately to address water quality in impaired lakes, streams, and other waterways. There should be no new permits given by any body for enterprises that would harm water quality before remediation has taken place.