

Lyndsey Waletzke

This is a public health crisis. Resources need to be dedicated and things need to change for the sake of our state and especially the children. What kind of legacy is this to leave for them. Absolutely shameful. Declare an emergency get funding and take care of this!! If we aren't prioritizing clean air and water what are we doing!?