

James Herther

Please include Dark Lake, a wild rice lake polluted by sulfate from the U.S. Steel Corp. Minntac tailings basin, in its list of wild rice impaired waters. Dark Lake's sulfate is more than 10 times higher than the standard and the Minntac permit was reversed by Minnesota courts due to inadequate regulation of sulfate.