

Linda Jensen

I am a very concerned citizen in Minnesota, paying plenty of taxes! It is appalling that the organizations skirt the responsibilities that have a high priority as this. I do not understand government entities that act on the behalf of those who gain monetarily over the health and safety of the resources we need to survive. It is a hopeless world if this cannot be remedied. Please do the right thing.