

David Wilson

MNs water are getting contaminated at an alarming rate due to copper sulphate mining and intensive farming practices among other things. Please continue to widen the scope for contaminations and improve our most precious resource. The time is now, waiting will hasten MNs demise as a clean water resource