

Dave Holt

Birch Lake should be included on the impaired list. There is wild rice on the lake and the sulfate levels exceed that to be classified as Impaired.

furthermore, as a landowner on Garden Lake, downstream of Birch, elevated levels of sulfate are a watershed issue that I believe requires attention.