

Marian Severt

The MPCA must be in a position not only to recognize water impairment, but must work to stop it. If I recognize my plumbing is leaking but do not intervene, what good did the recognition do? We must be able to halt the continuing pollution of our water.