

Jonathan Dregni

I am very proud that my State agencies share these maps of horrid misuse of waters, and proud you are open to comments. I am uneducated on the details, but clean water is an essential part of our basic needs and the legacy we leave for our descendants. We need clean water and productive fisheries.