

Eileen Levin

I support these measures as a start toward protecting our land and environment from all the sewage, runoff, etc., from feedlots. Protecting our streams and rivers are public lands is most important more so than the rights a big business to have these mammoth feed lots, they can do so much damage.