

Mike Bottin

I appreciate being asked for input. Thank you.

The current report info and system is very comprehensive and complete. I can not see how adding more reports to file, will improve water quality or reduce any possible issues. The current system is very thorough with many checks and balances.