

Mick Madson

We apply our manure on corn ground. The timing of application is so late no cover crop can start. If I had to apply in the spring no one would take it because of the damage and compaction of the seed bed. This would cause a huge economic hardship. Please don't cause that.