

Kent Grandlienard

You need to stop ignoring/allowing this repeated pollution by farmers and "Big Ag" that literally washes away decades of clean up /resorption efforts of our State's waters. Same thing with ignoring the repeated "sewage discharges" into waters after "storm events". Enforce the laws, impose SERIOUS fines, and require actually remedies that prevent future pollution. (Like requiring municipalities to update/enlarge their sewerage treatment systems)