

Byron Koehl

I do not agree with trying to limit fall applied manure. This is the best time for us as farmers to get it applied to our land. Trying to get it in the spring or when we have crops growing is a absolute nightmare.