

Tri M Farms Madson

It would be impossible to raise pork if we are not allowed to apply manure in the fall season after crops are harvested. Spring does not provide the opportunity to pump pits and get manure applied before planting must happen. Field packing, short time frame and quality of seed bed are all major concerns. We are already worked to the max of human capacity trying to get all the fall work before the ground freezes. Please reconsider