

Bonnie Hammack

We desperately need solutions to our groundwater and surface water contamination problem. The efforts set forth in these permits are only a start of what is needed. These rules should apply to all feed lots, not just those with 1000 animal units or more. I appreciate that there must be a groundcover to apply manure, and setbacks. There must be funding for site inspections.