

Austin Bernstein

I am all for keep our water ways clean and safe but it sounds like you are only focusing on manure. What about the other fertilizers and sprays the farms are putting on fields are they part of the problem too? With how fields are tiled now days rain that falls on the fields makes it to our water ways very fast so wouldn't those other chemicals that you can't see make it to our waterways just like the manure does?