

Nancy Conger

I appreciate these beginning efforts to manage manure's impact on water.

For any policy to have teeth, please strengthen the reporting requirements, and expand the need for monitoring to all lands that have manure applied.

Clean water is the most foundational of all environmental issues. Please protect it as robustly as possible.