

Laura Lara

I'm a family medicine physician starting work in Wabasha, MN. I did much of my training in Minneapolis near a similar incinerator and it has clear effects on my patients. I would like all the incinerators shut down to keep the air clear and reduce rates of asthma, copd and cancer.