

Annette Oresick

The elimination of chemicals from our water and soil is very important to me. It not only effects our health, but the health of all living beings on our planet. Thank you.