

Jean Ross

The draft wastewater permit for the 3M Cottage Grove facility contains some of the strongest limits on PFAS in Minnesota history. It lowers allowable PFAS levels and includes stronger guidelines for monitoring groundwater, regular reporting, and community engagement and accountability from 3M. These provisions ensure that the Mississippi River and surrounding waters are safe for aquatic life and human activity. I support these stronger limits and restrictions on PFAS.