

Blair Erickson

Please consider those that will be here, left with the aftermath of our actions. Would you want to be born into, and live in a toxic world? What type of world do you want for your children?