

Frieda Wilson

It is encouraging to hear that 3M will be required to protect communities from the dangers of PFA's in their wastewater. The technology is available for them to be good citizens and support the community they service.