

Jean Carlson

Please lower allowable PFAS levels and include stronger guidelines for monitoring groundwater, regular reporting, and community engagement and accountability from 3M. The Mississippi River and surrounding waters need to be safe for aquatic life and human activity.