

Matt goebel

Who do we contact for the future diminished value of our homes?. We've already had to install water filtration systems with our wells in our homes to keep our families safe from 3M pollution...these huge home filters along with this new over-pollution of our groundwater will only make it harder to re-coup our hard earned investments into our homes and our community.