

Annette Oresick

PFAS are named forever chemicals for a reason. I appreciate and am grateful for anything that is enacted to lower these chemicals that seem to be everywhere now and monitor and hold accountable the companies violating set emissions. I would also like more research done on finding ways to get these chemicals out of our environment. Thank you.