

Grant Prader

I live in Minneapolis and have asthma. I don't want additional pollutants released into the air my community breathes. The wild fire smoke in 2023 was bad enough. This is something we can control, so we should do everything in our power to keep our air healthy for our community.