

Leigh Currie

The download function didn't seem to work. I would click on a row in the table and hit download, but it would always download a screenshot showing the first permit in the table (a 3M permit, not the one I clicked on).

I would also suggest making it possible through this tool to download the actual permit documents (like the application itself) rather than just a screenshot of the website.